Jottings.

—Chicken dinner to-morrow at the Saddle Rock.

— Praise service at the M. E. church to-morrow evening.

— Workinkingmen's meeting to-night. So we are informed.

— Highland Ditch takes an assessment of thirty cents per share.

—Geo. Royal, of Truckee, has received a patent on his track cleaner.

—A white laundry is soon to be started near the public school-house. Success to these gentlemen.

— Look out for careless stove pipes. We are having choice weather for successful fires.

—Speaking of spectacles, a large quantity have been on exhibition all day in front of the Headquarters saloon.

Dr. Hogan is demolishing the old hospital on Second street, and proposes to erect a comfortable residence on residence on Centre sreet.

— Barnes is unceasing in his warfare upon bed bugs and other insects troublesome to the busy housewife. A glance at the 50-cent column will verify our statements.

— The price of raspberries, peaches, currents and cherries is growing beautifully less in our markets. By-and-by our business men can buy fruit on Sundays for dinner. Clerks only can afford the luxury now.

— Jones & Kinkead mining stock sells at a good figure in the market—that is, what a man can purchase, as very few shares are being sold. We rejoice that the owners of this mine are making an admirable showing, and now have within their grasp a rich mining property.

TIME HORSE.—Don Victor, one of ex-Governor Stanford's running horses, passed west this morning. Victor is from the Owen Dale stock, and two years ago was regarded as one of the best horses in California. He comes from Salt Lake and will be taken to a farm near south San Francisco.

SACRED CONCERT.—There will be a concert of sacred music at the Methodist church to-morrow evening. The exercises will consist of the singing of choruses, trios, quartetts and solos, also recitations and song, by the Sunday school children. All are invited.

ELOPEMENT CASE.

"For ways that are dark and tricks that are vain the heathen Chinee is peculiar." A very pointed illustration of this occurred last evening in Carson, and in Reno the "trick that was dark" proved that it was done in vain. A Chinawoman, who it is said resides in Auburn, had taken up a temporary residence in Bodie. From this latter place she was staged to Carson, and there packed in a close box for shipment to Auburn, Cal. The purpose of boxing this fair maiden of the Flowery Kingdom seems to have been to avoid capture at this point. The box in which she was incarcerated was small and unventilated. Of course she must have suffered not a little before reaching Reno, but her resolution was strong, and she faithfully bore her agony until she reached here, Her paramour, who quietly sat in the smoking car, allaying dull care by the narcotic weed, had imposed this restriction on her liberty that he might subserve his vile lusts and criminal parsimony. But baseness is not always hidden, and the lowest creature is not bound to violate natural law without some hearing and relief. When the baggage-master dumped his human freight upon the trucks, and then again upon the scales, it was too much for the suffering woman to endure. Brutally packed into a light box, and then rolled over and thrown on a truck with her head down, would make a Regulus moan, much less could a small Chinawoman bear this barbarous cruelty of Pagon invention. Abe Hartley heard her faint, half smothered voice, and lost little time in relieving her from her agonizing position. She was of course half dead when removed from the box, but was soon much improved and allowed to go on her way. What afterwards became of her we could not ascertain. Perhaps other tortures await her; perchance some moon-eyed heathen has eloped with her, and the Chinese gentry are at this time freely talking of the scandal. But the celestial who suddenly left the platform last night, when the unpacking began, if he was the hellish inquisitor, should be encased in the same box and dumped into the Truckee, or else beslimed in a pillory by his countrymen, and afterwards hanged by them until his wretched soul had passed into the lowest depts of hell.

Dissolution Sale.

Messrs. Barnett Brothers have for for several good and sufficent reasons, resolved to dissolve partnership. To this end they propose to dispose of the larger, or even their present entire stocks of dry goods and clothing, and to sell at the very lowest prices, as may be seen by their advertised list, to be found in another column of this paper. We need not describe their very extensive and well selected stock of goods. This firm is one of the oldest in Reno, and as to prices, the list referred to is sufficently explicit on this point. Mr. Thomas Barnett retires from the firm. Those desirous of obtaining good clothing at bedrock prices, will do well to give these gentlemen a call.

DO NOT DISTURB THEM.—TheChinese contractors commenced work to-day near the State line, on the Truckee and Steamboat irrigation canal. We apprehend that no trouble will ensue between these Chinese and any body of white men, but counsel those who justly feel themselves wronged in this matter, to have full respect for the laws of our land, and the protection which these laws guarantee to every one within these United States.

FOR NEXT WEEK.—Thus far the excitement as bulletined for next week will be a strawberry invasion on Monday night, a marriage, the starting up of the English mill on Jones & Kinkead ore, the session of the District Court and the meeting of the committee of irquiry into county affairs. There may be more but the outlook is sufficient.

ALL parties who purchase bottled beverages of Mr. A. Jose will deliver the bottles to him or pay for said bottles. 4¼-tf

PIONEERS' PICNIC.—The pioneers will hold their picnic at Treadway's ranch Carson, on July 4th. With this picnic and the Carson races during the day, and a dance in the new theatre on the evening of the 4th, Carson will be a very lively place on this memorable natal day.

MOLLIE MCCARTHY.—The original name of the famous Mollie McCarthy that will run against Tenbroeck at Louisville, Ky., on the 4th of July, was MaCarty. She was named after a lady in Virginia City, who is now the wife of Mr. Tinker, of the firm of Tinker & Shephard.

GOOD FOR THE BUYER.—No reason why you should not have your photograph, a calico dress, or a cheap suit of clothes. The war has opened and times are lively. Livery men should let their teams cheaper and owners of property should not ask such high and almost exorbitant rents.

PHOTOGRAPHIC.—Lovewell's gallery is doing a lively business in the photograph and ambrotype line. Budden has made some reductions in price and Hazeltine takes the finest views of any artist that has ever been in Reno.

BRANCH SUIT AND CLOAK HOUSE. Weil Brothers announce to the people of Reno that they have just opennd in Reno a branch of the Cleveland Suit and Cloak company. As they get their goods directly from the manufactory they can, therefore, undersell all other Reno merchants and yet make a profit on their goods. We have no auction trash, nor do we propose to sell for twenty-five cents what is worth one dollar. We therefore take pleasure in inviting the ladies of Reno and vicinity to call and inspect our stock resting assured that we shall be able to satisfy them both as regard to price and quality of the goods. Store on east side of Virginia street, Reno, Nevada. WEIL BROTHERS. 6-5-tf.

M. All members of said committee are requested to be present. JOHN BOAMAN,
Chairman Original Com. of Five.

STATE NEWS.

Elko has an assorted lot of horse thieves.

The Bodie mine, Bodie district claims a rich strike.

M. J. Robinson died in Eureka Wednesday night.

The mines at Jefferson, near Austin, are full of promise again.

The mines of Paradise valley are being talked up. No dividends yet.

Folks from Lake Tahoe state that business is lively at Glenbrook, and in fact all round the lake.

The first bud of election year appears in A. V. Mandell. He announces himself in the Elko Independent.

The Cherry Creek robbery case in Carson is still progressing, and those well-fed jurors look as if they would like it to keep on progressing.

The Eureka Sentinel says that a project is on foot to build a narrow gauge railroad from Beowawe to Eureka. Leland Stanford is said to be interested in the enterprise, and the Richmond and Consolidated companies of Eureka have subscribed liberally to the capital stock.

The following bullion shipments were made Wednesday from Winnemucca: Hussey, of Cornucopia, four bars, valued at $6,229 72; Independence, of Tuscarora, ten bars, valued at $19,484 19; Martin White, of Ward, five bars, valued at $10,683; Star, of Cherry Creek, five bars, valued at $3,300; Gila, six bars, valued at $9,516 81.

Austin has an Indian blacksmith.

Silver State: It is reported that cinnabar, containing a high percentage of quicksilver, has been found in the San Francisco sulphur company's mines at Rabbit Hole, and that the prospects are favorable for extensive deposits of the ore being found.

LADIES, TAKE NOTICE.—Weil Brothers, who have lately opened a branch of the Cleveland cloak and suit factory on Virginia street, desire to warn the ladies of Reno of the fact that they do not sell 17 yards of calico for $1, and overcharge in other articles to make up for it. But they do sell anything in their line cheaper than any house in Reno which buys from western dealers. There are certain dealers in Reno who are anxious to disclaim that they own the bank of England, or a peddler's pack. We accept the sentiment. We know they are not proprietors of the bank in question, and if they paid twenty-five cents on the dollar for their goods they would certainly not have a peddler's pack left.

THE CHINESE MUST GO.—So says J. Loewenthal, on Virginia street, adjoining Barnett's block, as he is prepared to make pants to order and guarantee a fit, for the small sum of $6 and upwards and all other clothes at correspondingly low prices at the great I. X. L. Combination Store.

AN UNFORTUNATE.

Professor R. A. Clark, who now awaits his trial in Carson for the killing of Albert Adams, has written a letter to the Enterprise. The communication shows plainly that Clark is an over-sensitive and unfortunate man. He makes no plea or statement in regard to the killing whatever, but asks a little kindness. In showing how thoughtless comment has wounded one who is already extremely miserable, Mr. Clark says:

This wail from a dungeon, Mr. Editor, I send you, not as a taunt—God knows I have no malice in my heart—but as an argument, a plea for others in distress and towards whom nature has been ungenerous. Could the world in which I have moved for the past two years have lifted the curtain of my heart it would have stood appalled at the suffering it so lightly inflicted. Look around you and you can doubtless see others whose hearts are breaking. If you ever have occasion to speak of them use kind words. They are easily spoken but infinitely precious to the wounded heart.

It is not rare to see musicians who have the sensibilities of a woman. These are doomed to constant trial through half, and the noise of common life is always discord to them. They are too observant of their own peculiarities, and while never seeking to harm any, they are constantly being jostled and tortured by enforced contact with the world.

The Virginia Chronicle thinks that this sensitiveness and non-conformity "is a misfortune in any one," but it can be overcome. The way to cure it is to mingle much with people and endeavor to fall into the prevailing rut of society." The opinion is entirely shallow and ungenerous. A man can no more change that portion of his nature than he can will to be happy or sad. The Chronicle reaches its opinion, however, from this standpoint: "Mr. Clark unfortunately resorted to the pistol to maintain himself against prevailing notions. He was taunted by boys and resented the indignity." If this be a prevailing notion, it is matter of news. We would not be understood as justifying a crime because the actor is over sensitive, by any means. Mr. Clark has offended the laws and must be tried by them. His nature is not his defense, but we submit that it is ungenerous to quote prevailing notions as a guide for any man's life, and, and furthsr to refuse him even common sympathy because he did not live in the "prevailing rut oj society." A more flippant and unworthy opinion pe have never read.

HON. A. J. TYRRELL.

The State press has been talking a great deal lately about a dark horse which would win the gubernatorial race without a previous record. All sorts of guesses have been sent to the political market and none have yet been accepted. The gentleman whose name heads this article seems, however, to stand in the background at present surrounded by numerous friends. We are not aware that Mr. Tyrrell has ever entered the political field before. Neither have we any knowledge of his position upon various State issues. He is represented, however, as a staunch Republican and a popular man. His long residence on the Comstock has provided him an excellent business record and a large acquaintance. One thing in regard to Mr. Tyrrell's candidacy has struck us as an evidence of strength, viz: that his name is taken up eagerly by the large class of working men who are his acquaintances. Mr. Tyrrell is, we believe, hard at work already. Can it be that he is the dark horse?

The New York Times says of the local paper:

You might nearly as well forget your churches, your academies and your school-houses, as to forget your local paper. It speaks to ten times the audience that your local minister does. It is read eagerly each day and each week from beginning to end. It reaches you all, and if it has a lower spirit and wisdom than a sermon, it has a thousand times better chance at you, laying as it does, on every table in almost every house, you owe it to yourselves to rally to its support, and exact from it as able, hightened a character as you do from an educator in your midst. It is in no sense beneath notice and care—unless you yourself are beneath notice and care—for it is your representative. Indeed, it is the summation of the importance, interest and welfare of you all. It is the aggregate of your own consequence, and you can not ignore it without miserably depreciating yourself.

AN IMPORTANT COMPROMISE.

A telegram from San Francisce to the Comstock June 7th says that the basis of a compromise between the leading mining companies of the Comstock and the Sutro Tunnel company has been agreed upon.

The Chronicle thinks this will be welcome news to every man in Storey county. It will be the beginning of a new era in the history of the Comstock when the Sutro tunnel taps and drains the great lode. It had been feared that because of a disgreement between the Tunnel company and the mining companies the benefits to be derived from the tunnel would be deferred indefinitely, pending the determination of tedious litigation. It is gratifying to know that there is now no ground for such a fear.

Holders of shares in the Central Comstock mines will be especially pleased with this compromise, as it assures them of a future for their property which scarcely any other circumstance could bring about.

It is worth while to say that Mr. Fair is without information which would enable him to vouch for or deny the truth of the telgram in question.

Mr. Requa believes that there is no truth in the report.

The Sutro is now about under the Savage dump at a depth of 1680 feet and about 500 feet from the west wall of the Comstock. The tunnel is already in Comstock ground, so the final agreement must soon be made.

MITCHELL'S DEFEAT IN OREGON.

Here is an editorial utterance from the New York Times which every Republican newspaper in the State should publish. Not because it applies to our Senator Jones, but because there is a valuable moral involved in the recital which may easily provide rules of action in relation to other officers of the public gift. We do not undertake to say that we have one unscrupulous political schemer in Nevada, but they have in Oregon, as the subjoined will show:

The election of a United States Senator in place of Mitchell will devolve on the Legislature which has just been elected in Oregon. Mitchell desired to be his own successor and his friends were rather more intent on nominating candidates for the Legislature who would vote for Mitchell than those who would bring out the full Republican vote of their districts. As a natural consequence a Legislature with a Democratic majority has been elected. Mitchell somewhat ostentatiously identified himself with railroad schemes which were more obvious in the interests of Jay Gould than of the State which he represented. Oregon having been compelled to choose between Mitchell and a Democrat, and having preferred the latter alternative, in the next Senate there will be one Republican less, because the party "machine" in Oregon was used simply to further the ends of a selfish and not over-scrupulous political schemer. As if to emphasize the lesson taught by the result of the struggle for the Legislature, the Republicans have elected their candidates for Governor, Secretary of State and Treasurer. A moral may possibly be found for the instruction of the Republican party of the State of New York in what is at once a victory and a defeat for the party in Oregon.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

There are in Europe at the present time 1507 theatres. Itlay, with a population of 26,000,000, supports 348; France, with 36,000,000, has 337, and Spain, with 16,000,000, has 160. On the other hand, the empire of Germany, which now reckons 41,000,000 subjects, has but 191 theatres; and the empire of Austria, 152, for a population 36,000,000. Finally, Great Britain supports only 150 theatres and Russia 44, although its population amounts to 60,000,000. These figures show a remarkable preponderance of the dramatic instinct in the Latin race.

General P. E. Connor, of Eureka, passed through to-day, homeward bound. He is spoken of as a candidate for Governor of Nevada at the ensuing election. It is thought that he will be a candidate before the Republican convention, but we hope he will run independent. He is a man whose public record as an officer in the United States army and private character as a citizen are above reproach or suspicion.—Silver State.

Governor Connor is, we believe, all that the Silver State says of him, but he has been looking more towards the Governorship of Utah through government appointment. We should like to see General Connor turned loose among the Polygamists.

No doubt it would be a great change for a United States Senator form Nevada to know that he represented the people of that State, and not so much capital which he, or somebody who owned him, chose to invest in the speculation. It would also be a great change to have a good sound Democrat in that position, who would vote his vote and and say his say, not like the noisome catspaw of a railroad corporation, or the creature of so much capital embarked in hazardous speculation, but like a man, a good citizen and a sound Democrat.—S. F. Corr. Sentinel.

Noisome catspaw is good and yet this San Franciscoan does not speak of Jas. Farley, recently pushed into the Senate for California.

An exchange says: "Dr. F. J. White and R. M. Daggett returned yesterday morning from their visit of inspection to the insane asylum at Stockton, and report matters and things in a much better condition than had been reported." And the Reveille adds: "Yes; Dr. White and Mr. Daggett were expected at the asylum, and the place was up on its best behavior. But how many patients have been discharged cured from Langdon & Clark's con tract asylum?"

The Eureka Sentinel has found a Democratic aspirant for senatorial honors. The strike was made through a man who resides in San Francisco. He enters A. M. Hillhouse for the race, and the Sentinel seconds the motion, and promises to act as pall bearer. The Silver State and Elko Independent have not been heard from.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Gold, silver and legal tender remain with little change, and Trades are very scarce.

During the past week mining stocks have made a slight advance, particularly Ophir and Julia. To-day the bonanza mines declare their regular monthly dividends. An assessment of $1 per share has been levied on Justice, which is delinquent July 13th. The bullion shipments for the week are: Independence, $19,480 20; Silver Prize, $3,792 22; Hussey, $6,220 72; Leopard, $3,100 24; Tybo, for the past month, $83,246 84; Northern Belle, on the 1st instant, $5,255 01; Modoc Con., $30,000; Star, $4,274.

The Yellow Jacket delinquent assessment sale took place to-day at the office in Gold Hill. The assessment amounts to $240,000, but most of it has been paid up, and comparatively few shares were offered at the sale, and yet it is nearly seven years since a dividend was paid.

Belmont, Ward, and Empire assessments were delinquent yesterday.

Crown Point has levied an assessment of $1 per share.

The Black Hawk (Bodie), has levied an assessment of 25 cents, and the Justice $1.

The Morgan Mining Company has levied an assessment of 50 cents per share.

Trojan levies an assessment of 25 cents per share.

The aggregate number of shares of Comstock stock changing hands at the San Francisco Stock Exchange during the month of May was 1,848,845 shares, of which number Julia scores the highest, viz: 348,113, or the whole mine three times over.

Trade in San Francisco market is duller than it has been, and prices of many of the staple articles are lower last week. In the home market trade is improving and has been very active with a few of our merchants, with others trade is very dull. Butter and eggs are not active in the market while vegetables, and especially potatoes are in demand. Wool is dull and very little sale is found for it, this is caused by large quantities of wool being on hand at all the central shipping ports east and west. Wool has also fallen two cents on the pound. In our markets 20,000 pounds of wool is stored in warehouses awaiting shipment.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Sarah J. Plaintiff alleges that he is now, and for six months next preceding the commencement of this action has been a resident of the County of Washoe and State of Nevada, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county.

And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.
